

Wilder Muskley

DON'T YOU HEAR THE CALL LADDIE?

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
42,083
EDWARD JOHNSON
MUSIC LIBRARY

Dedicated to the Union Jack

SUCCESSFULLY INTRODUCED BY

Words by
A. H. M. REED

Music by A. S. L. MAY

Price
25c.

The Popular Trio
Artie Marks, Lindsay Perrin, and Mascot Patsy
With The Tom Marks Co.

Published by
The Independent
Publishing Co.,
Goderich, Ontario

A.S.L. May 1916

Dedicated to the Union Jack

Don't You Hear The Call Laddie?

Words by A. H. M. Reed

Music by A. S. L. May

Allegro

VOICE

PIANO

Tempo di marcia

mf

Dont you hear the Call Lad-die, dont you hear the Call,
'Tis your coun-try calls Lad-die, she that gave you birth,
From a cross the seas Lad-die, hear that ur-gent call,

Beat - ing loud - ly in your heart beat - ing most of all?
Shall the Teu - ton con - - quer sul - ly this fair earth?
Go and help the Mo - ther-land she needs you most of all,

Prove the stuff you're made of now's the time to show
 Go and do — you're "bit" Lad - die proud to hear the call
 Sor - row - ful — and pa - tient un - yeld - ing in her pride

Eng - land begs — your aid Lad - die aren't — you "game" to go.
 God pro - tects — the right Lad die He — is ov - er all.
 Ral - ly round — the flag Lad die put all things else a - side

Chorus Brillante

Du - ty is call - ing why should you stay,

Why do you ling - er why — not a-way? There flies the Old Flag

there let it Wave Al - ways de-fen - ded by Sons of the brave

CHORUS (last verse only ad lib.)

Du - ty is call - ing why should you stay? Why do you ling - er why not a - way? There flies the Old Flag see! let it wave

Al-ways de - fen - ded by Sons of the Brave.

